PART III. GENERAL INFORMATION AND NOTICES.

Privacy Notice

The Ethics Ordinance requires the collection of this information, which will be used primarily for public disclosure and to determine compliance with the Ethics Ordinance. The information may be presented for review or for copying, at the requestor’s expense, upon request by any person, including officials of state, local, or federal government, who, upon presenting proof of identification, registers their name and address, along with the name of the person whose statement is being reviewed. The subject has the right to review, correct, and amend the record, and the right to know who has reviewed their disclosure statement, and principal home addresses of candidates, officers, and employees will be redacted.

Standards of Conduct

The Ethics Ordinance includes definitions and standards of conduct applicable to all financial disclosure filers including employees and elected and appointed officials. The standards address disqualification from participation, prohibited secondary employment, prohibited ownership interests, misuse of position, prohibited solicitation and acceptance of gifts, misuse of confidential information, post-employment limitations, prohibited dealings with the County, procurement specifications assistance restrictions, and other matters. The law provides for exceptions and exemptions under certain circumstances. If you have any questions about the Ethics Ordinance, please contact the Carroll County Ethics Commission, c/o the Office of Administrative Hearings, or see it on the website at <https://ccgovernment.carr.org/ccg/attorney/code/>.

Enforcement Provisions

Failure to file or report information required by the Ethics Ordinance by the due date could subject a filer to administrative penalties of $2.00 per day up to a maximum of $250.00 and other disciplinary action, including a civil fine of up to $5,000.00 per day by the Circuit Court for Carroll County, or any other court having proper jurisdiction for the purpose of enforcing compliance.
