Commissioner Howard Interested in Freedom Plan Feedback

Westminster, MD, Tuesday, July 10, 2018 – Commissioner Doug Howard, an ex-officio member of the Carroll County Board of Education (BOE), is expected to attend the next BOE board meeting to welcome incoming Superintendent Steven Lockard. As a result, he will not be able to attend the Planning Commission’s Public Hearing regarding the Freedom Plan, scheduled for tomorrow July 11, 2018 at Liberty High School.

“I regret I can’t be two places at one time; however, the Public Hearing is a Planning Commission process, and as such, my role is limited to observing from the audience. Citizens should rest assured that the Freedom Plan remains one of my highest priorities and I will watch the proceedings with great interest,” said Commissioner Howard.

Commissioner Howard looks forward to reviewing the recording of the event, further discussions with his colleagues, and passing a version of the Freedom Plan in short order. For questions or concerns, please email him at dhoward@ccg.carr.org.
