Bureau of Roads Hires New Chief

Westminster, MD, Wednesday, September 27, 2017 – The Department of Public Works is pleased to announce the promotion of Mr. Gregory W. Lotz to Chief of the Bureau of Roads for Carroll County. Mr. Lotz will assume his new role as Bureau Chief on September 28, 2017.

Mr. Lotz, employed with Carroll County since September 2016 as the Utilities Engineer, planned, designed, and coordinated the construction and modification of infrastructure for water and sewer facilities and managed the Bureau's asset and work order management system.

Mr. Lotz earned his Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering (ABET) from Yale University. He has over 12 years of engineering industry experience. His private sector career focused mainly on commercial construction, project management, facilities management and real estate development.

Mr. Lotz resides in New Windsor, Maryland with his wife and two children. He is an active member of Uniontown Bible Church and participates in various recreational sports around the county.

Mr. Jeffrey Castonguay, Director of Public Works for Carroll County, said, "I am pleased to welcome Mr. Lotz to our management team. We are excited for the implementation of his leadership philosophies within the largest bureau in the Department. His extensive experience and expertise will be an asset to the Bureau of Roads."

Please help Carroll County Government in welcoming Mr. Lotz as the new Bureau Chief of the Bureau of Roads.
