2017 CELEBRATING AMERICA SUMMER ADVENTURE IS UNDERWAY

Westminster, MD, July 6, 2017 – On May 20, 2017 the Celebrating America Summer Adventure program started for kids entering 1st through 9th grades.

Completing the adventure is as easy as 1, 2, 3!

- 1) Between May 20, 2017 and September 24, 2017, visit at least 8 eligible locations.
- 2) Snap a photo of yourself at each location to show you visited.
- 3) Take your photos to any Carroll County Public Library for verification.

Once verified, participants are invited to an ice cream social and prize giveaway at Union Mills Homestead, on October 22, 2017. The grand prize is a laptop donated by the Carroll Technology Council, Inc. Additional prizes from our generous sponsors include: family prize packages from; Carroll Arts Center, Carroll County Recreation and Parks, and the Boys and Girls Club of Westminster; Seasonal Family Passes to the Farm Museum and Union Mills Homestead and Grist Mill, and books from Carroll County Public Library.

Celebrating America is a history initiative created by the Board of County Commissioners to promote greater understanding of American history and historically significant people, events and places particularly those within Carroll County. Visit Celebrating America for rules and instructions or call 410-386-2043 for a copy of the 2017 Summer Adventure Passport.
