Maryland Governor Larry Hogan to Hold Cabinet Meeting in Carroll County

Westminster, Tuesday, May 9, 2017 – Maryland Governor Larry Hogan will hold a cabinet meeting at Carroll Community College on Thursday, May 11 from 10 to 11:30 a.m. The meeting is open to the public and doors will open at 9:15 a.m.

The college is located at 1601 Washington Road in Westminster, Md. The event will be in the Theater in the Scott Center, which is located in the T building of the college.

Governor Hogan and his cabinet of department secretaries will make a series of presentations to the audience in a theatre-style gathering. The Governor intends to deliver on an administration promise to connect local communities and citizens with state government. Members of the county delegation will also make a presentation. The Governor will present citations to leaders and individuals, recognizing them for contributions to the community. Last fall, the Governor and his cabinet conducted a cabinet meeting in Hagerstown, Md.

"I look forward to visiting beautiful Carroll County, connecting with citizens, and giving them a first-hand look at how we are working to change Maryland for the better," said Governor Larry Hogan. "Regional cabinet meetings give our administration an opportunity to bring state government directly to the people and to publicly demonstrate how government is working for them."

"The Carroll County Board of Commissioners is honored and excited to welcome Governor Hogan and his cabinet to Carroll County for their regional meeting," stated Richard Weaver, President of the Board of Commissioners. "We are excited to learn more about how the administration's programs and opportunities connect to Carroll County and appreciate the opportunity to showcase our county to Maryland's leadership."

The Francis Scott Key Choral Ensemble will sing the National Anthem. The meeting will include a presentation by the Color Guard and a recitation of the pledge of allegiance by a student from the college.
